LONDON (Alliance News) - Pembridge Resources PLC on Monday said it has appointed Spencer Davey as vice president of business development with immediate effect.

Davey has 15 years' mining experience across Australia, China, Europe and the UK, Pembridge said, and is currently the director of Southsea Consulting, where he led Saffron Energy PLC's initial public offering ahead of its listing on AIM earlier this year.

He has also advised numerous clients, including Rio Tinto PLC, on corporate finance and strategy initiatives.

"We are delighted to welcome Spencer as a member of the Pembridge team. He is a seasoned mining professional with extensive skill sets that fits our strategy and requirements. I look forward to working with him as we take Pembridge forward," Chief Executive David Linsley said in a statement.

Shares in Pembridge were trading up 13% at 3.38 pence on Monday.
